

"Mooch" Peake Former Tech Star, Playing on V. P. I. Eleven

PEAKE, FORMER TECHNICAL STAR, V. P. I. REGULAR

"Mooch," Half Back on Manual Trainers Last Year, Will Start Georgetown Battle.

OTHER SPORT AND COMMENT

"Mooch" Peake, who last year played a backfield position on the Technical High School eleven of this city, is at present building down the quarter back job on the V. P. I. team, which tackles the Georgetown aggregation Thanksgiving Day on the Hilltop gridiron.

While at Tech Peake played a rattling good game, both in a half-back position and on the end. "Mooch" went out for the team at the beginning of the season, and until two weeks ago had been running the second team, but he was moved in in the University of West Virginia contest last Saturday, and was the team in great style.

Branch Brock, the former Georgetown star, who is coaching the V. P. I. aggregation, wired the following last night:

Blackburg, Va., Nov. 22.—Yea, Peake on first squad. Will start the Georgetown game in quarter back.

BRANCH BROCK.

Four hundred tickets for the Georgetown-V. P. I. game Thanksgiving Day have been sent to the Blackburg institution by the Blue and Gray management, and it is understood that the entire student body will board a special train, together with a band, to witness the game here Thursday afternoon on the Hilltop field.

Yesterday a light signal drill was in order for the Hilltoppers, and Coach Gargan will start real practice tomorrow for the final game of the season. No standing room tickets will be sold, and it is expected that the crowd on the side lines will in this way be avoided.

Dick Harley, the former Eastern Leaguer, will more than likely coach the Georgetown baseball team next spring. It was learned last night from one of the Blue and Gray ball toilers. Should this prove to be true, the Hilltoppers will have secured a man who knows baseball from every angle, and one who will not allow any shirking on the field.

Manager Oliver, of the Vigilant football team, has just arranged a game with the Galahad eleven for Thanksgiving morning at Union League Park, to take the place of the one scheduled with the Maryland Aggies. The Farmers canceled the game yesterday with the Vigilants, and will meet the Pennsylvania Military College team in Chester, Pa.

GROVER HUGHES A WINNER AT NORFOLK

Captures Monticello Handicap from Good Field—Tartar Fails to Run Good Race.

Norfolk, Va. With the bookies showing 7 to 1 against him, Grover Hughes went under the wire an easy winner in the Monticello Hotel Handicap for all ages at the Jamestown Jockey Club track today. This purse was worth $2,000, and is the largest to be offered at the present meeting. Tartar and Lohure were the favorites, and were backed by the crowd. Grover Hughes ran the mile in 1:29.3, and was a length ahead of Tartar at the wire.

Malaga was an easy winner in the four-furlong contest. He took the jump easily, and was never caught after clearing the third hurdle in the first time round. The summaries:
